12-car, 5 January, KLMC

This event, organised by KLMC's President Colin Shinkins, started from the Foldgate Inn, Stradsett near Downham Market. Using a variety of well-used roads on the top right-hand corner of Map 143, 10 crews toiled with some taxing navigation which proved a bit too much for some of the less experienced crews.

Greg Bates/Stephen Lloyd took an unscheduled visit to the Norfolk scenery, Greg parking the XR2i between two trees on a 90° left without major damage to the car. But he did it so precisely that one of them had to be cut down to get the car out! Victory fell to Tim Ibbott/Adrian Cunnington in their Mazda despite a persistent stalling problem, just ahead of Mark Banham/Paul Haylock.

Results: page 4.

BITS & PIECES

- The Committee are looking for places of motoring interest to visit this summer. If you have any suggestions please contact any Committee member (see page 2 for contacts).
- Charles March has probably taken a certain Mr Ecclestone off his Christmas card list after Bernie shuffled the 2005 Grand Prix calendar last month. As a result, Goodwood Festival of Speed has had to be moved to new dates of June 24/25/26 from July 8/9/10 (which is now British GP weekend). If you were planning to go, please amend your diaries, holiday arrangements, hotel bookings....

CHRISTMAS COMPETITION

Congratulations to Paul Haylock who won this year's Romer Christmas competition. The completed grid is on page 2 and Paul correctly answered the questions as follows:

Racing:

1. The hidden champion was Emerson Fittipaldi who drove a Lotus 72
2. The missing name from the sequence was 1970 world champion Jochen Rindt

Rallying:

3. The hidden combination (Timo Salonen, Peugeot) were victorious in 1985.
4. The last named champion was Ari Vatanen. He was co-driven by David Richards in the year he won (1981).

Paul wins an exciting prize: a can of screenwash anti-freeze will be winging its way to Ructon Holme in recognition of his efforts.

Ed.
